and we The Players

We, The Editors . .

. . . have tried to recreate for you in pictures within the pages of the 1963 CARDINAL the humorous, the sad, and the everyday events which make a school year so memorable. If at anytime during the rest of your life you should look back upon this annual and have it bring back to you memories of your school years, then we may say that we were successful.

Marilyn and Charles

A Sincere Dedication to the Parents, Taxpayers, and Citizens of the Norris City-Omaha School District.

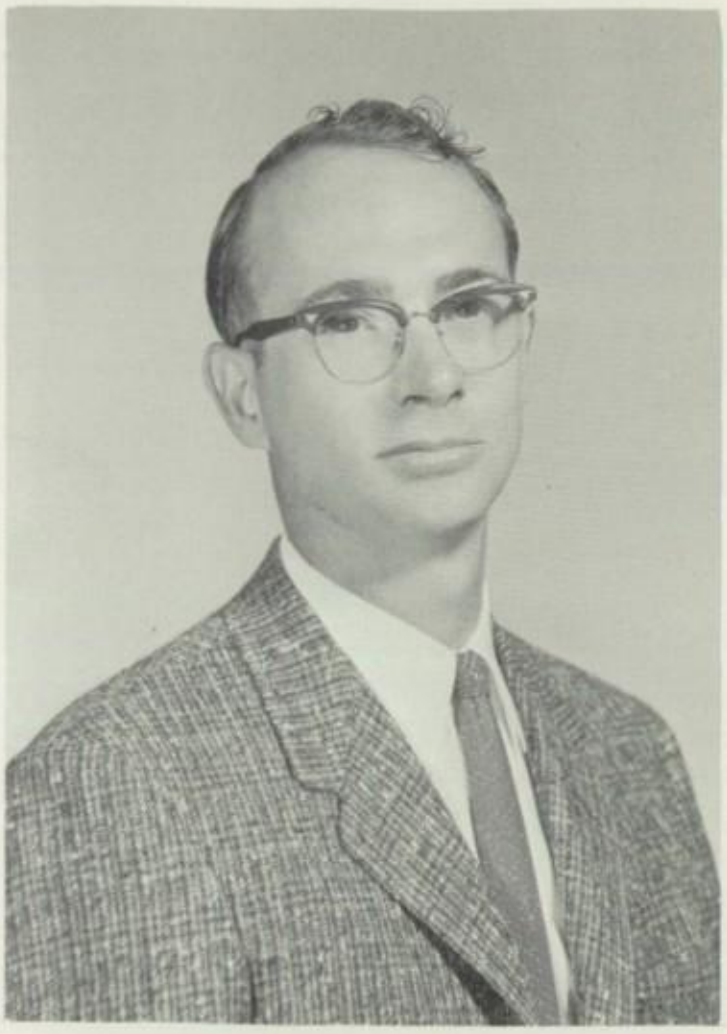
No culture can transcend the intellectual and moral awareness of its individual members. Therefore, in retrospect of this fact, to whom could we more appropriately dedicate this book than to the citizens, taxpayers, and parents of our community? This annual represents in words and pictures what has been accomplished here in the Norris City--Omaha classrooms in the past school year. It is dedicated to the merchants and farmers, the laborers and tradesmen who have financially and morally supported this school, men who subtly understand and are willing to accept the vast responsibility of such an institution.

In Memoriam

Throughout life we are stunned by the abyss of death. When it calls one for whom we have developed both respect and admiration, its mystery seems even more terrible. So it is now, as we pause to meditate upon our friend and associate, Mr. R. J. Crunk. We are, perhaps, not to grasp the underlying purpose of this tragedy, nor to find those words to describe the depths of our grief. And thus in this darkness of loss, where our reason cannot guide us, we must move through faith and divine love toward understanding and eternal light.

Administration

Mr. Frank Blackman



Mr. Lyman Greer, Jr.

"It is my sincere wish that the memories found in this yearbook will increase in value as the educational opportunities that have been afforded you here at the Norris City-Omaha High School will increase in value as the years go by."

In Memoriam

Mrs. Elizabeth Holland

Mrs. Elizabeth Holland was a woman of perseverance and ideas, a dedicated teacher of great ability, and perhaps, above all, a friend of immeasurable devotion. Her vast knowledge of her fellow human beings made her one more willing to hear than to be heard, one seeking more to understand than to be understood.

We all have much to learn from the philosophy of Mrs. Holland. She looked upon life, even through her last hours, with an insight and willingness to accept fate without complaint. Her reassurance and hope were those expressed by Scott when he wrote, "Is death the last sleep? No, it is the final awakening."
